Marina Oganyan successfully defended her dissertation, entitled "The Role of Morphology in Word Recognition of Hebrew as a Templatic Language, on July 31st. Julia Herschensohn and Richard Wright served as co-chairs of the dissertation and reading committee.