Linguistics and AIS Undergraduate Peji Hota Wakhan (Christian Nault) has been named to the 2019 Husky 100 list, an annual honor that recognizes students who are “making the most of their time at the UW.” You can find his profile on the Husky 100 website here. Peji is a graduating senior, studying the Dakota and Tlingit languages, while also dabbling in French, German, and Japanese. He is a double major in linguistics and American Indian Studies, and hopes to eventually work in language revitalization in his own tribal nations.

Peji will also have the honor of carrying the UW College of Arts & Sciences banner at Commencement at Husky Stadium on June 15. Way to go, Peji!
