SYNTAX ROUNDTABLE

The syntax roundtable is a group for UW syntacticians. We welcome both graduate and undergraduate students interested in syntax. Joining the roundtable gives you an opportunity to become part of UW syntax community. It is a great venue to get feedback on your research in an informal setting, read and discuss syntax papers, learn about conferences, workshops, jobs, funding opportunities, practice abstract writing and give practice conference talks. We meet on Fridays, on a bi-weekly basis (alternating with the semantics roundtable).

If you'd like to join us, please join the syntax roundtable mailing list by following the directions here: https://mailman13.u.washington.edu/mailman/listinfo/syntaxroundtable
